THE ONE WORLD GOVERNMENT

NEW WORLD ORDER

Resistance will cost you! Submission will cost you more!

The modern plan for a global government began with Freemasonry in 1390 and the Scottish Rites in 1395. The first master global plan was prepared by the Rothschilds in 1773. The implementation didn't take shape until a man by the name of Adam Weishaupt, who had studied to be a Jesuit priest and was a Freemason, formed an organization called "The Illuminati," on May 1, 1776. The alliance between Freemasonry and the Illuminati didn't arise until July 16, 1782. These organizations are powerful.

The common leadership behind these organizations was aware that world control would require economic control. In 1913, they were responsible for the Federal Reserve Special Act of 1913. The Federal Reserve was incorporated in December 1914 as a private corporation. The Federal Reserve is no more federal than Federal Express (nor does it have any reserves.) However, the so-called "Federal" Reserve is an important tool intended to permit a few to ultimately control the world's monetary system. Read what these men had to say about the Federal Reserve:

- Lewis T. McFadden (Chairman of the House Banking Commission, U.S. Congressman): "We have in this country one of the most corrupt institutions the world has ever known. I refer to the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks, hereinafter called the Fed. They are not government institutions. They are private monopolies which prey upon the people of the U.S. for the benefit of themselves and their foreign and domestic swindlers, rich and predatory moneylenders." McFadden died mysteriously in 1936 after three attempts on his life.
- George W. Malove (U.S. Senator from Nevada): When speaking before Congress in 1957, he alluded as follows to the families that secretly own the Federal Reserve Bank and control the finances of the U.S.: "I believe that if the people of this nation fully understood what Congress has done to them over the past 49 years, they would move on Washington, they would not wait for an election., it adds up to a preconceived plan to destroy the economic and social independence of the U.S."
- Baron M. A. Rothschild: "Give me control over a nation's currency and I care not who makes it's laws." "Whoever controls the volume of money in any country is master of ALL its legislation and commerce."

The Illuminati was also responsible for the formation of the Council on Foreign Relations ("CFR"). This organization was formed in July, 1921. The primary purposes of the CFR and the more recently established Tri-Lateral Commission are to establish a one world government. Read what these men had to say:

- Zbigniew Brzezinski (National Security Advisor to Carter and four other presidents, Executive Director of the Tri-Lateral Commission): "The Technetronic era involves the gradual appearance of a more controlled society. Such a society would be dominated by an elite, unrestrained by traditional values."
- Peter Hoagland (Nebraska State Senator): On a radio program in 1983, he stated: "Fundamental, Bible-believing people do not have the right to indoctrinate their children in their religious beliefs because we, the state, are preparing them for the year 2000, when America will be part of a one world order global society and their children will not fit in."
- Carrol Quigley (deceased Bill Clinton mentor, Professor of History at Georgetown University, member of the CFR): In his book "Hope & Tragedy", he stated: "The C.F.R. is the American Branch of a society which originated in England and believes national boundaries should be obliterated and one world role established." In other words, the CFR's activities are treasonous to the U.S. Constitution. They mean to put an end to the United States and make the U.S. part of their global government scheme. One only has to read their own publication, "Foreign Affairs Magazine", to get a first hand lesson in their treachery.
- Rowan Gaither (President of the Ford Foundation in 1954): "We operate here under directives which emulate from the White House... The substance of the directives under which we operate is that we shall use our grant making power to alter life in the U.S. so that we can comfortably be merged with the Soviet Union."
- James Paul Warburg (foreign agent of the Rothchild Dynasty, major player in the "Federal" Reserve Act scam): He stated on February 17, 1950 before the U.S. Senate: "We shall have world government, whether or not we like it. The only question is whether world government will be achieved by conquest or by consent."

- Henry Kissinger (Secretary of State to Nixon): He said at a Bilderberger meeting, "Today, Americans would be outraged if U.N. forces entered Los Angeles to restore order. Tomorrow they will be grateful."
- Warren Christopher (former Secretary of State under Clinton): He stated on January 25, 1993, on CNN: "We must get the NEW WORLD ORDER on track and bring the U.N. into its correct roll in regards to the U.S." The Washington Times reported on May 12, 1996: "Secretary of State Warren Christopher has declared protection of the 'global environment' to be a fundamental principle of American foreign policy. In a recent speech at Stanford University, Mr. Christopher unveiled the 'Environmental Initiative for the 21st century,' an ambitious agenda of green diplomatic initiatives he intends to promote with renewed vigor throughout the world."
- Mikhail Gorbachev: In November 1987, Mr. Gorbachev made the following statements to the Politburo "Gentlemen, comrades, do not be concerned about all you hear about Glasnost and Perestroika and democracy in the coming years. These are primarily for outward consumption. There will be no significant internal change within the Soviet Union, other than for cosmetic purposes. Our purpose is to disarm the Americans and let them fall asleep." (See the following paragraph for more of Mr. Gorbachev's intentions.)

Other organizations have been established in modern history to assist in the establishment of the new world order. The Bilderbergers were formed in 1954, as a sister organization to the CFR and with careful manipulation saw to it that Clinton was elected President. The Club of Rome is using environmental policies, and the unified protection of the worldwide environment as a force moving towards a new world order. This group has divided the world into 10 regions and has placed Mikhail Gorbachev as chairman of the World Environmental Movement from his base in San Francisco.

The Tri-Lateral Commission, formed by David Rockefeller in July, 1972, and using contrived, and planned gas shortages, turned Japan into an industrial giant over night. This was done to shift money (we began buying Japanese cars faster than they could produce them) to Japan, and Europe with the end result being, lost jobs, lost technology and lost capabilities to bring down an already staggering trade deficit.

When Will One World Government Happen?

The Bible does not set the date for the creation of the one world government. Rather, the Lord has a way of setting His own dates and embarrassing the date setters (recall "88 Reasons Why He Will Come in 88," "1994," etc.). Yet, we can observe events as they occur and return to the Bible, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, to see just where they fit in.

The move to a ONE WORLD GOVERNMENT has been carefully planned, slowly conditioning people, moving them step-by-step towards public acceptance of a one world government. We are being conditioned similar to the story of a frog in a pan of water with fire beneath it. The frog will remain in the heating pan as the water temperature rises and finally scalds the frog to death. The frog will not move, gradually becoming accustomed to the heat. And the frog is comfortable. However, if you were to throw a frog into a pan of hot water, the frog would jump out.

Like the scalded frog, we have been conditioned to accept a one world government! Just read the following and let the Lord show you when or how far into it we are. The CFR publishes a very informative quarterly journal called "Foreign Affairs". More often than not, important new shifts in U.S. policy, or highly indicative attitudes of political figures, have been telegraphed in its pages.

For instance, the April 1974 issue of Foreign Affairs carried a very explicit recommendation for carrying out the world government scheme of CFR founder Edward Mandell House. Authored by State Department veteran and Columbia University Professor Richard N. Gardner (himself a member), "The Hard Road to World Order", admits that a single leap into world government by an organization like the U.N. is unrealistic. Instead Gardner urged the continued piecemeal delivery of national sovereignty to a variety of international organizations. He called for "an end run around national sovereignty, eroding it piece by piece." He named as organizations to accomplish his goal the International Monetary Fund, The World Bank, the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade, the Law of the Sea Conference, the World Food Conference, the World Population Conference, disarmament programs, and a United Nations military force. This approach, Gardner said, "can produce some remarkable concessions of sovereignty that could not be achieved on an across-the-board basis."

The NAFTA Agreement, as well as many other agreements, are solidifying North America as 1 of 10 world regions. Could these be the 10 horns of Revelation 17:12-4:

"And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast. These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast. These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings: and they that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful."

Professor Gardner's preference for destroying the freedom and independence of the U.S. in favor of the CFR's goal of world government may thoroughly dominate top circles in our nation today. Yet the end of these attempts is written in God's eternal word. Still, the men who would scrap the United States Constitution are praised as "progressives" and "farsighted thinkers." The only question that remains among these powerful insiders is which method to use to carry out their treasonous plan. But, even that question is no mystery to our Lord.

Who Will be In Charge of One World Government?

I believe the antichrist system is already in charge. Babylon, reborn in the religious system, the Opus Dei, took control of the Vatican Banks in 1981 and along with control of the World Council of Churches, we have that leg of the three-legged milk-stool. The secret societies are flourishing and the recruiting of men into Freemasonry has reached into State Fairs and public events. This all goes back to the families: Rothschilds, Rockefellers and the Opus Banks. They control the buying, selling, food distribution and, in turn, control the people.

"Little children, it is the last time: and as ye have heard that antichrist shall come, even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time." (1 John 2:18)

As secret global meetings of government officials and private power elites convene to discuss and to influence the course of world history, the world's major media organizations remain curiously silent and apparently uninterested. Why are groups like the Trilateral Commission, the Council on Foreign Relations, the Bilderbergers, the Illuminati – groups whose members are obviously powerful with connections to wealth and political influence – never the subject of the evening news? Why are secret societies – some of which have been at work on the world stage for centuries – never given attention to by Liberal or even most Conservative news outlets? Most people don't realize secret societies exist because their minds have been conditioned to reject any thought of such organizations.

Who or what is actually behind the sinister forces at work to move the world toward global government and a universal religion? It is Lucifer himself, "that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan," whom the Bible calls "the god of this world" "which deceiveth the whole world" (I Cor. 4:4; Rev. 12:9). The Bible tells us to "Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places." (Eph. 6:11,12): "the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience" (Eph. 2:2). Even nineteenth century occultist F. H. C. Hort, one of the men who helped to produce the corrupt English Revised Version bible of 1881, understood that there are spiritual "influences" involved in moving man towards a new world order and one world religion: "At present very many orthodox but rational men are being unawares acted on by influences which will assuredly bear good fruit in due time; if the process is allowed to go on quietly...." (Life & Letters of F.J.A. Hort, Vol. 1, page 400).

Will One World Government Affect America?

Yes! America is being affected and will be more so. We are a nation that was founded on Godly principles. However, as the nation of Israel did many times, we have taken up wicked ways and judgment is on the way. The scripture says of whom much is given, much is required (Luke 12:48). God is going to require much of us, for He has indeed blessed us!

If you have heard of the Illuminati Order and you thought it was some kind of mythological conspiracy theory, here are the archives from George Washington himself, which prove not only their existence, but that they were intensively active in the United States of America. George Washington was also certain that some of the illuminati had infiltrated some of the American Lodges of Freemasonry.

“TO G. W. SNYDER.

Mount Vernon, 24 October, 1798.

REVEREND SIR,

I have your favor of the 17th instant before me, and my only motive for troubling you with the receipt of this letter is, to explain and correct a mistake, which I perceive the hurry in which I am obliged often to write letters has led you into.

It was not my intention to doubt, that the doctrines of the Illuminati and the principles of Jacobinism had not spread in the United States, On the contrary, no one is more fully satisfied of this fact than I am.

The idea that I meant to convey was, that I did not believe that the lodges of freemasons in this country had, as societies, endeavoured to propagate the diabolical tenets of the former, or pernicious principles of the latter, if they are susceptible of separation. That individuals of them may have done it, or that the founder, or instrument employed to found the Democratic Societies in the United States, may have had these objects, and actually had a separation of the people from their government in view, is too evident to be questioned.” (The Writings Of George Washington, Vol. XI., 1855, p. 337)

It is an undeniable fact that conspiracies exist. It is also an under appreciated fact that most people have been conditioned to pay little or no attention to conspiracies. Misinformation is often circulated in the media and elsewhere for the purpose of leading people away from the truth. This was in the past and still is today one of the main functions of the Catholic Jesuit organization. It is no coincident that high level Jesuits are also high ranking Freemasons. The following information reveals some of the methods employed to deceive. “Morals and Dogma” is an official Masonic book written by occultist Albert Pike. Pages 104 and 105 of this Satanic occult book states:

“Masonry, like all the religions, all Mysteries, Hermeticism, and Alchemy, conceals its secrets from all except the Adepts and Sages, or the Elect, and uses false explanations and misinterpretations of its symbols to mislead those who deserve to be mislead;”

“So Masonry jealously conceals its secrets, and intentionally leads conceited interpreters astray.” (Morals and Dogma, pp. 104, 105)

Only the “illuminated ones” at the highest levels of Freemasonry and other secretive societies are privy to the Luciferian agenda of the New World Order. (See Theosophy: The Worship of Lucifer and also George Washington's Prayers)

No one is immune to deception. If we think we are immune to deception, it is then that we are in fact being deceived. “Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise. For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, He taketh the wise in their own craftiness.” (I Cor. 3:18,19). The Bible said, “And if any man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.” (I Cor. 8:2): “For if a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself.” (Gal. 6:3). The prophet Obadiah said, “The pride of thine heart hath deceived thee” (Obad. 1:3). And Proverbs chapter 28 verse 26 says, “He that trusteth in his own heart is a fool”.

Jesus Christ warned us that many would come in his name and would deceive many: “Take heed that no man deceive you. For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ [Greek christos meaning Anointed]; and shall deceive many.” (Matt. 24:4,5). The Bible said, “Let no man deceive you with vain words:” (Eph. 5:6) and “Let no man deceive himself.” (I Cor. 3:18). The apostle Paul said, “Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first,” a falling away from the “sound doctrine” of the “pure” “preserve[d]” “holy scriptures”, “the faith which was once delivered unto the saints” (II Thess. 2:3; II Tim. 3:15; 4:2-4; Psalms 12:6,7; Prov. 30:5,6; Jude 1:3). Paul said, “Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall.” (I Cor. 10:12).

Sometimes deception is acute and can suddenly sweep people away like a flood (Psalms 90:3-6; Rev. 12:15). But more often than not deception is a gradual process which takes place over a period of days, weeks, months or even years. Man usually forms his opinions based on his own life experiences and on the information that is readily accessible to him. Unfortunately, most of the sources we rely on for truthful, complete and unbiased information are sources controlled by “the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience” (Eph. 2:2). Bernard Goldberg, a former CBS news correspondent of twenty-eight years, exposed some of the media bias in the news industry. In his 2002 book, Bias, Goldberg said that “It's important to know, too, that there isn't a well-orchestrated, vast left-wing conspiracy in America's newsrooms. The bitter truth, as we'll see, is arguably worse.” (Bias, A CBS Insider Exposes How the Media Distort the News, 2002, p. 4). It is not a conservative right-wing press verses a liberal left-wing press. It is not an issue of one race of people verses another race of people. It is not a Democrat verses Republican issue. It is a truth verses falsehood issue.

Some of the people involved in the release of information regarding the New World Order and New Age Religion conspiracies are actually the conspirators themselves. These subtly wicked people will allow only a certain amount of factual information to be released along with a fair amount of misinformation in order to make anyone willing to take such conspiracies seriously look foolish or just plain paranoid. They have successfully conditioned the public at large to view conspiracy researchers as simple-minded crackpots. A President of the United States of America had this to say about secretive organizations: “The very word 'secrecy' is repugnant in a free and open society; and we are as a people inherently and historically opposed to secret societies, to secret oaths and to secret proceedings. We decided long ago that the dangers of excessive and unwarranted concealment of pertinent facts far outweighed the dangers which are cited to justify it.” (John F. Kennedy, 27 April 1961). The Holy Bible speaks about numerous conspiracies. There are dozens of references to conspiracies and conspirators in the scriptures. There are many warnings in the Bible about the many deceivers and the strong delusion that will take place in the latter days prior to the return of the Lord Jesus Christ in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory and the end of the world. We would be wise to take heed to God's warnings! (See 1981 NEWS REPORT ABOUT BOHEMIAN GROVE — THE REAL BOHEMIAN GROVE — 20th CENTURY ATROCITIES OF THE ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH, and HISTORICAL BOOKS & DOCUMENTATION OF FACTS below!)

In his informative book, A History of the Holy Catholic Inquisition, Cyrus Mason wrote in 1835, “They [Jesuits] regard our country [the U.S.A.] as an open field, where they may pursue their schemes without molestation, and with entire success; where they may profit by the toleration enjoyed under our mild and free institutions.”

“These sworn servants of a foreign potentate [the pope] have as a leader an avowed defender of the inquisition. These emissaries are true to their patrons and their mother church. They defend her infallibility, and of course, must maintain her supremacy, and promote (in a prudent way) all her doctrines and institutions. They believe that her intolerance of all modes of faith but her own, is for the glory of God and the good of the whole world; and, holding her infallibility, they must, of course, defend the machinery by which she has, in former ages, carried out her spirit of intolerance against those who have dared to think and speak for themselves in the interpretation of the Scriptures.”

“... her infallibility is the key-stone of the arch on which she rests. The practical effects of the Catholic religion, in the hands of these [Jesuit] agents of the pope, will be the same in our country as they are in the old world, only they must be more slowly disclosed, and defended with caution.... There is nothing like a gradual initiation to a new order of things." (A History of the Holy Catholic Inquisition, Cyrus Mason, 1843, pp. 5,6,7) (See also THE TESTIMONY OF THE REFORMERS, and A WOMAN RIDES THE BEAST)

The September 2000 United Nations Millennium Declaration states some of the goals that the New World Order elitists hope to accomplish in the next few years. Section II, subsection 9, paragraph 4, states: "We resolve therefore: To ensure the implementation, by States Parties, of treaties in areas such as arms control and disarmament and of international humanitarian law and human rights law, and call upon all States to consider signing and ratifying the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court." Why the "Rome Statute?" Because, as we shall see, "all roads lead back to Rome". This is why our Presidents of late were not allowed, even if they wanted, to dissolve the United States of America's unholy union with the corrupt United Nations organization. Paragraph 10 states, "To take concerted action to end illicit traffic in small arms and light weapons, especially by making arms transfers more transparent and supporting regional disarmament measures...." (See United Nations Millennium Declaration). It is said that if you place a living frog in a pan of water and gradually heat the water, the frog will not perceive the temperature change and will remain in the pan, thus allowing himself to be scalded to death. Like the frog in a pan of hot water who's flesh has slowly become desensitized to his surroundings, Americans are being led astray and lulled into a state of complacency with the charms of "THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS", while our country is being methodically taken over by the secret and not so secret wicked rulers in high places (Eph. 6:12; 2 Tim. 4:1-4; Rev. 2:19-22; 17:1-6; 18:1-5). The disarmament of private law-abiding citizens in Australia, Canada and the U.K. has begun in earnest. U.S. citizens are next in line to be disarmed and controlled by our new land-lords — Satan's "ministers of righteousness" (I Cor. 11:14,15)

IMPORTANT QUOTES ON LIBERTY & THE 2nd AMENDMENT RIGHT TO BEAR ARMS

The Bill of Rights of The United States of America, Amendment II states:

"A well regulated Militia, being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear Arms, shall not be infringed." The first ten amendments to the Constitution, adopted 4 March 1789, ratified 15 December 1791.

Who are the militia? Are they not ourselves? Is it feared, then, that we shall turn our arms each man against his own bosom. Congress have no power to disarm the militia. Their swords, and every other terrible implement of the soldier, are the birthright of an American...[T]he unlimited power of the sword is not in the hands of either the federal or state governments, but, where I trust in God it will ever remain, in the hands of the people. [emphasis added]

--- Tench Coxe, The Pennsylvania Gazette, Feb. 20, 1788.

The constitutions of most of our States assert, that all power is inherent in the people; that they may exercise it by themselves, in all cases to which they think themselves competent (as in electing their functionaries, executive and legislative, and deciding by a jury of themselves, in all judiciary cases in which any fact is involved), or they may act by representatives, freely and equally chosen; that it is their right and duty to be at all times armed;

--- Thomas Jefferson to John Cartwright, 1824. Memoir, Correspondence, And Miscellanies: From The Papers of Thomas Jefferson, Vol. IV, 1830, p. 395

Militias, when properly formed, are in fact the people themselves and include all men capable of bearing arms.... [W]hereas, to preserve liberty, it is essential that the whole body of the people always possess arms, and be taught alike, especially when young, how to use them;...

--- Richard Henry Lee, The Pennsylvania Gazette, Feb. 20, 1788.

No freeman shall be debarred the use of arms.

--- Thomas Jefferson: Draft Virginia Constitution, 1776. The Jeffersonian Cyclopedia, 1900, p. 51

And that the said Constitution be never construed to authorize Congress to infringe the just liberty of the press or the rights of conscience; or to prevent the people of the United States who are peaceable citizens from keeping their own arms....

--- Samuel Adams, in "Phila. Independent Gazetteer", August 20, 1789; The Life and Public Services of Samuel Adams, Vol. III, 1865, p. 267

The right of self-defense is the first law of nature: in most governments it has been the study of rulers to confine this right within the narrowest limits possible. Wherever standing armies are kept up, and when the right of the people to keep and bear arms is, under any color or pretext whatsoever, prohibited, liberty, if not already annihilated, is on the brink of destruction.

--- St. George Tucker (in Blackstone's Commentaries, St. George Tucker, 1803, p. 300)

Are we at last brought to such an humiliating and debasing degradation, that we cannot be trusted with arms for our own defense? Where is the difference between having our arms in our own possession and under our own direction, and having them under the management of Congress? If our defense be the real object of having those arms, in whose hands can they be trusted with more propriety, or equal safety to us, as in our own hands?

--- Patrick Henry Patrick Henry: Life, Correspondence and Speeches, Vol. III, 1891, p. 494

[The Constitution preserves] the advantage of being armed, which the Americans possess over the people of almost every other nation....[where] the governments are afraid to trust the people with arms.

--- James Madison, in Federalist 46, The Federalist, on The New Constitution, Vol. I, 1802, p. 316.

Before a standing army can rule, the people must be disarmed; as they are in almost every kingdom in Europe. The supreme power in America cannot enforce unjust laws by the sword; because the whole body of the people are armed, and constitute a force superior to any band of regular troops that can be, on any pretence, raised in the United States. A military force, at the command of Congress, can execute no laws, but such as the people perceive to be just and constitutional; for they will possess the power, and jealousy will instantly inspire the inclination, to resist the execution of a law which appears to them unjust and oppressive.

--- Noah Webster, (Philadelphia 1787) Pamphlets on the Constitution of the United States, 1888, p. 56

A strong body makes the mind strong. As to the species of exercises, I advise the gun. While this gives moderate exercise to the body, it gives boldness, enterprise and independence to the mind. Games played with the ball, and others of that nature, are too violent for the body and stamp no character on the mind. Let your gun therefore be your constant companion of your walks.

--- Thomas Jefferson to Peter Carr, 1785. Memoir, Correspondence, And Miscellanies: From The Papers of Thomas Jefferson, Vol. I, 1830, p. 287

[O]ne loves to possess arms, though they hope never to have occasion for them.

--- Thomas Jefferson to George Washington, 1796. Memoir, Correspondence, And Miscellanies: From The Papers of Thomas Jefferson, Vol. III, 1830, p. 331

Guard with jealous attention the public liberty. Suspect every one who approaches that jewel. Unfortunately, nothing will preserve it but downright force. Whenever you give up that force, you are inevitably ruined.

--- Patrick Henry Life of Patrick Henry, William Wirt, 1817, p. 273

They who can give up essential liberty to obtain a little temporary safety, deserve neither liberty nor safety.

--- Benjamin Franklin, Memoirs of the Life and Writings of Benjamin Franklin, London, 1818

[W]hen the resolution of enslaving America was formed in Great Britain, the British Parliament was advised by an artful man, who was governor of Pennsylvania, to disarm the people; that it was the best and most effectual way to enslave them; but that they should not do it openly, but weaken them, and let them sink gradually....

--- George Mason, speech of June 14, 1788, The Debates in the Several State Conventions on the Adoption of the Federal Constitution, Vol. III, p. 380

Why should we not provide against the danger of having our militia, our real and natural strength, destroyed? The general government ought, at the same time, to have some such power. But we need not give them power to abolish our militia.... They may effect the destruction of the militia, by rendering the service odious to the people themselves, by harassing them from one end of the continent to the other, and by keeping them under martial law.

--- George Mason, speech of June 14, 1788, The Debates in the Several State Conventions on the Adoption of the Federal Constitution, Vol. III, p. 380

One of the ordinary modes, by which tyrants accomplish their purposes without resistance, is by disarming the people, and making it an offense to keep arms, and by substituting a regular army in the stead of a resort to the Militia. The friends of a free Government cannot be too watchful, to overcome the dangerous tendency of the public mind to sacrifice to mere private convenience this powerful check upon the designs of ambitious men.

--- Constitutional scholar and Supreme Court Justice Joseph Story (The Constitutional Class Book by Joseph Story LL. D., 1834, p. 149)

Adolf Hitler understood this concept well and used it to control and slaughter millions of people. After having occupied Russian territory Hitler said: The most foolish mistake we could possibly make would be to permit the conquered Eastern peoples to have arms. History teaches that all conquerors who have allowed their subject races to carry arms have prepared their own downfall by doing so.

--- Adolf Hitler, April 11, 1942, quoted in Hitler's Tischgespräche Im Führerhauptquartier 1941-1942. [Hitler's Table-Talk at the Führer's Headquarters 1941-1942], Dr. Henry Picker, ed. (Athenaum-Verlag, Bonn, 1951) (Hitler's Secret Conversations 403 (Norman Cameron and R.H. Stevens trans., 1961))

Even the father of non-violent resistance, Mahatma Gandhi, understood the dangers of a ban on possessing arms and spoke out against gun-control: Among the many misdeeds of the British rule in India, history will look upon the act of depriving a whole nation of arms, as the blackest.

--- Mahatma Gandhi, GANDHI: An autobiography. The story of my experiments with Truth, p. 446

No clause in the Constitution could by any rule of construction be conceived to give to Congress a power to disarm the people. Such a flagitious attempt could only be made under some general pretense by a state legislature. But if in any blind pursuit of inordinate power, either should attempt it, this amendment may be appealed to as a restraint on both.

--- William Rawle, A View of the Constitution of the United States of America, 2nd Ed., 1829, pp. 125, 126

As civil rulers, not having their duty to the people before them, may attempt to tyrannize, and as the military forces which must be occasionally raised to defend our country, might pervert their power to the injury of their fellow citizens, the people are confirmed by the article in their right to keep and bear their private arms.

--- Tench COXE in 'Remarks on the First Part of the Amendments to the Federal Constitution' under the Pseudonym 'A Pennsylvanian' in the Philadelphia Federal Gazette, June 18, 1789 at 2 col. 1)

Little more can reasonably be aimed at, with respect to the people at large, than to have them properly armed and equipped;...

[I]f circumstances should at any time oblige the government to form an army of any magnitude, that army can never be formidable to the liberties of the people, while there is a large body of citizens, little, if at all, inferior to them in discipline and the use of arms, who stand ready to defend their own rights....

--- Alexander Hamilton speaking of standing armies in Federalist 29, The Federalist on The New Constitution, Vol. I, 1802, pp. 185, 186

The right of the citizens to keep and bear arms has justly been considered as the palladium of the liberties of a republic; since it offers a strong moral check against usurpation and arbitrary power of rulers; and will generally, even if these are successful in the first instance, enable the people to resist and triumph over them.

--- Supreme Court Justice Joseph Story of the John Marshall Court, (A Familiar Exposition of The Constitution of The United States by Joseph Story LL. D., 1840, p. 265)

And what country can preserve its liberties, if its rulers are not warned from time to time, that this people preserve the spirit of resistance? Let them take arms....The tree of liberty must be refreshed from time to time with the blood of patriots and tyrants.

--- Thomas Jefferson in a letter to William S. Smith, 1787. Memoir, Correspondence, And Miscellanies: From The Papers of Thomas Jefferson, Vol. II, 1830, p. 268

If ever the Time should come, when vain & aspiring Men shall possess the highest Seats in Government, our Country will stand in Need of its experienced Patriots to prevent its Ruin.

--- Samuel Adams, Letter to James Warren, 12 February 1779, The Writings of Samuel Adams - Volume 4

If we love wealth better than liberty, the tranquillity of servitude, than the animating contest of freedom—go from us in peace. We ask not your counsels or arms. Crouch down and lick the hands which feed you. May your chains set lightly upon you, and may posterity forget that ye were our countrymen.

--- Samuel Adams, Speech at the State House of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, 1 August 1776, Orations of American Orators, 1900

Roger Sherman, during House consideration of a militia bill (1790), [C]onceived it to be the privilege of every citizen, and one of his most essential rights, to bear arms, and to resist every attack upon his liberty or property, by whomsoever made. The particular states, like private citizens, have a right to be armed, and to defend, by force of arms, their rights, when invaded.

--- 14 Debates in the House of Representatives, ed. Linda Grand De Pauw. (Balt., Johns Hopkins Univ. Press, 1972), 92-3.

Certainly one of the chief guarantees of freedom under any government, no matter how popular and respected, is the right of the citizens to keep and bear arms. [...] the right of the citizens to bear arms is just one guarantee against arbitrary government and one more safeguard against a tyranny which now appears remote in America, but which historically has proved to be always possible.

--- Hubert H. Humphrey, 1960

According to the National Crime Survey administered by the Bureau of the Census and the National Institute of Justice, it was found that only 12 percent of those who use a gun to resist assault are injured, as are 17 percent of those who use a gun to resist robbery. These percentages are 27 and 25 percent, respectively, if they passively comply with the felon's demands. Three times as many were injured if they used other means of resistance.

--- G. Kleck, "Policy Lessons from Recent Gun Control Research," Law and Contemporary Problems 49, no. 1. (Winter 1986.): 35-62.

If gun laws in fact worked, the sponsors of this type of legislation should have no difficulty drawing upon long lists of examples of criminal acts reduced by such legislation. That they cannot do so after a century and a half of trying -- that they must sweep under the rug the southern attempts at gun control in the 1870-1910 period, the northeastern attempts in the 1920-1939 period, the attempts at both Federal and State levels in 1965-1976 -- establishes the repeated, complete and inevitable failure of gun laws to control serious crime.

--- Senator Orrin Hatch, in a 1982 Senate Report

The conclusion is thus inescapable that the history, concept, and wording of the second amendment to the Constitution of the United States, as well as its interpretation by every major commentator and court in the first half-century after its ratification, indicates that what is protected is an individual right of a private citizen to own and carry firearms in a peaceful manner.

--- Report of the Subcommittee On The Constitution of the Committee On The Judiciary, United States Senate, 97th Congress, second session (February, 1982), SuDoc# Y4.J 89/2: Ar 5/5

In recent years it has been suggested that the Second Amendment protects the "collective" right of states to maintain militias, while it does not protect the right of "the people" to keep and bear arms. If anyone entertained this notion in the period during which the Constitution and the Bill of Rights were debated and ratified, it remains one of the most closely guarded secrets of the eighteenth century, for no known writing surviving from the period between 1787 and 1791 states such a thesis.

--- Stephen P. Halbrook, "That Every Man Be Armed", 1984

The Constitution is not an instrument for the government to restrain the people, it is an instrument for the people to restrain the government - lest it come to dominate our lives and interests.

--- Patrick Henry, Pocket Patriot, 2005, p. 52

I believe there are more instances of the abridgement of the freedom of the people by gradual and silent encroachments of those in power, than by violent and sudden usurpations;

--- James Madison (Speech in the Virginia Ratifying Convention on Control of the Military, June 16, 1788 in: History of the Virginia Federal Convention of 1788, vol. 1, p. 130 (H.B. Grigsby ed. 1890) The Debates in The Several State Conventions on The Adoption of The Federal Constitution, Vol. III, 1888, p. 87

Congress....may carry on the most wicked and pernicious of schemes under the dark veil of secrecy. The liberties of a people never were nor ever will be secure, when the transactions of their rulers may be concealed from them.

--- Patrick Henry Life, Correspondence and Speeches, Vol. 3, 1891, p. 496

An appeal to arms and the God of Hosts is all that is left us! It is vain, sir, to extenuate the matter. Gentlemen may cry peace, peace; but there is no peace. The war is actually begun. The next gale that comes from the north, will bring to our ears the clash of resounding arms! Our brethren are already in the field. Why stand we here idle? What is it that gentlemen wish? What would they have? Is life so dear, or peace so sweet, as to be purchased at the price of chains and slavery? Forbid it, Almighty God! I know not what course others may take, but as for me, give me liberty or death!

The Constitution of The United States of America, Article VI, paragraph two, states:

This Constitution, and the Laws of the United States which shall be made in Pursuance thereof; and all Treaties made, or which shall be made, under the Authority of the United States, shall be the supreme Law of the Land; and the Judges in every State shall be bound thereby, any Thing in the Constitution or Laws of any State to the Contrary notwithstanding. [emphasis added]

The following was taken from:

HANDBOOK OF AMERICAN CONSTITUTIONAL LAW

by Henry Campbell Black (Constitutional Scholar and Author of Black's Law Dictionary), 4th ed. 1927

LIMITATIONS ON JUDICIAL POWER

The judicial department can neither make nor execute the laws, nor interfere with either of the departments in the constitutional discharge of its powers and duties, nor can judges be charged with the performance of non-judicial duties.

Courts Cannot Make or Amend Laws

The judicial department cannot legislate; its duty is to interpret and apply the statutes (if constitutional) exactly as they stand. Even in the performance of this duty the courts must not attempt to make law. A construction of a statute contrary to its obvious meaning is an encroachment on the legislature. Neither can the courts amend statutes, however worthy the object to be effected or however evil the consequences to be averted. Though a statute may be imperfect, lacking in detail, or impracticable, the courts have no power to remedy the defects. And a court must not write into a statute an exception which the legislature did not make, and on the other hand, a casus omissus [case omitted] does not justify judicial legislation. Nor can the courts inflict any penalties for acts which the legislature has not declared to be a crime.

..., nor can they lawfully enjoin the passage of a statute or ordinance or undertake to prevent the enactment of unconstitutional laws. [emphasis added]

THE POLICE POWER

The police power of a state is the inherent sovereign authority under which its legislature may, within constitutional limits, prescribe laws and regulations to safeguard the safety, health, and morals of the people, prevent fraud and oppression, and promote the public convenience, prosperity, and general welfare. [emphasis added]

The police power is an attribute of government fundamentally necessary to the public safety, but so easily perverted as to be extremely dangerous to the rights and the liberty of the citizen. Even when properly defined and limited, it is so far-reaching in its importance and so paramount in its sway, even as against guaranteed private rights, that its enlargement, by continual loose applications of the term to cases where it is neither needed nor appropriate, is a serious menace to personal freedom.

Are Federal, State and Local Officials Violating Their Sacred Oaths of Allegiance to the U.S. Constitution?

"[T]he Constitution controls any legislative act repugnant to it....a legislative act contrary to the Constitution is not law....an act of the Legislature repugnant to the Constitution is void." (Marbury v. Madison, (Chief Justice Marshall, U.S. Supreme Court, 1803. 1 Cranch's Reports, 137-180), pp. 32,33.)

"It is also not entirely unworthy of observation that, in declaring what shall be the supreme law of the land, the Constitution itself is first mentioned, and not the laws of the United States generally.... Thus, the particular phraseology of the Constitution of the United States confirms and strengthens the principle, supposed to be essential to all written Constitutions, that a law repugnant to the Constitution is void, and that courts, as well as other departments, are bound by that instrument." (Ibid, pp. 36,37.)

In a September 1859 speech at Cincinnati, Ohio, Abraham Lincoln said,

"The people of these United States are the rightful masters of both congresses and courts, not to overthrow the Constitution, but to overthrow the men who pervert the Constitution." (Political Debates Between Abraham Lincoln and Stephen A. Douglas, 1894 p. 315)

If the Constitution says one thing and a legislature or judge says something else, a federal, state or local official who is sworn to support the Constitution must follow the Constitution. To do otherwise is to disregard the rule of law. Any act of legislation contrary to the U.S. Constitution, and any attempt to enforce such law, is strictly illegal. Our officials in all sectors of government are engaged in criminal conduct by enforcing unconstitutional laws!

THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA: A POLICE STATE!Presidential Executive Orders to be Issued in the case of Martial Law

This is list of the Executive Orders associated with FEMA that would suspend the Constitution and the Bill of Rights. These Executive Orders have been on record for nearly 30 years and could be enacted by the stroke of a Presidential pen:

Assigns emergency preparedness function to federal departments and agencies, consolidating 21 operative Executive Orders issued over a fifteen year period.

EXECUTIVE ORDER 11921

Allows the Federal Emergency Preparedness Agency to develop plans to establish control over the mechanisms of production and distribution, of energy sources, wages, salaries, credit and the flow of money in U.S. financial institution in any undefined national emergency. It also provides that when a state of emergency is declared by the President, Congress cannot review the action for six months. The Federal Emergency Management Agency has broad powers in every aspect of the nation. General Frank Salzedo, chief of FEMA's Civil Security Division stated in a 1983 conference that he saw FEMA's role as a "new frontier in the protection of individual and governmental leaders from assassination, and of civil and military installations from sabotage and/or attack, as well as prevention of dissident groups from gaining access to U.S. opinion, or a global audience in times of crisis." FEMA's powers were consolidated by President Carter to incorporate the...

National Security Act of 1947

Allows for the strategic relocation of industries, services, government and other essential economic activities, and to rationalize the requirements for manpower, resources and production facilities.

1950 Defense Production Act

Gives the President sweeping powers over all aspects of the economy.

Act of August 29, 1916

Authorizes the Secretary of the Army, in time of war, to take possession of any transportation system for transporting troops, material, or any other purpose related to the emergency.

International Emergency Economic Powers Act

Enables the President to seize the property of a foreign country or national. These powers were transferred to FEMA in a sweeping consolidation in 1979.

WAKE UP AMERICA! YOUR LEADERS HAVE TRASHED YOUR CONSTITUTION!

"O my people, they which lead thee cause thee to err, and destroy the way of thy paths." (Isaiah 3:12).

Under the pretext of peace and safety America's leaders, at all levels of government, have violated their sacred oaths of office in failing to uphold and defend the United States Constitution, "the supreme Law of the Land" (U.S. Constitution, Article VI, paragraph II).

The framers of our Constitution established a separation of powers to further protect the people from possible government abuse of power. In his Farewell Address in 1796, George Washington warned his nation against the usurpation of power by one department of government over another. Washington said, "It is important, likewise, that the habits of thinking, in a free country, should inspire caution in those intrusted with its administration, to confine themselves within their respective constitutional spheres, avoiding, in the exercise of the power of one department, to encroach upon another. The spirit of encroachment tends to consolidate the powers of all the departments in one, and thus to create, whatever the form of government, a real despotism. A just estimate of that love of power, and proneness to abuse it, which predominates in the human heart, is sufficient to satisfy us of the truth of this position. The necessity of reciprocal checks, in the exercise of political power, by dividing and distributing it into different depositories, and constituting each the guardian of public weal against invasions by the others, has been evinced by experiments ancient and modern; some of them in our country and under our own eyes." (A Biography of the Signers of the Declaration of Independence, L. Carroll Judson, 1839, p. 319).

George Washington also warned the people of the United States against “the insidious wiles of foreign influence”. Washington said, “As avenues to foreign influence in innumerable ways, such attachments are particularly alarming to the truly enlightened and independent patriot. How many opportunities do they afford to tamper with domestic factions, to practice the arts of seduction, to mislead public opinion, to influence or awe the public councils? Such an attachment of a small or weak towards a great and powerful nation dooms the former to be the satellite of the latter.” Washington believed that America should have “as little political connection as possible” with foreign nations. Washington said, “The unity of government which constitutes you one people, is also now dear to you. It is justly so; for it is a main pillar in the edifice of your real independence;... But as it is easy to foresee, that from different causes and from different quarters, much pains will be taken, many artifices employed, to weaken in your minds the conviction of this truth; as this is the point in your political fortress against which the batteries of internal and external enemies will be most constantly and actively (though often covertly and insidiously) directed” (A Biography of the Signers of the Declaration of Independence, L. Carroll Judson, 1839, pp. 315, 321, 322).

From the highest to the lowest levels of government, America's leaders have sold out their communities and their nation to the interests of foreign governments, world bankers and other foreign entities. Noah Webster defines treason as “the offense of attempting to overthrow the government of the state to which the offender owes allegiance, or of betraying the state into the hands of a foreign power.... In the United States, treason is confined to the actual levying of war against the United States, or in adhering to their enemies, giving them aid and comfort.” (American Dictionary of The English Language, 1828). Are the actions of our leaders not treasonous? Leaders who are willing to turn over U.S. sovereignty to foreign powers? Leaders who are willing to allow private U.S. citizens to be tried and convicted in the wicked tribunal of the “World Court”? Leaders who are passing unconstitutional “hate crime” legislation destroying our freedoms? Leaders who have “hijacked the role of our Grand Jury and the courtroom jury and, henceforth, embarked on a mission of misinformation, distortions, and blatant lies to convince the American people, and the entire legal community, that it is the government that determines what is right and what is wrong...” ? (“Runaway Grand Juries vs. The Runaway State”, Mark S. McGrew). Most of America's elected, hired and appointed officials have sold out their country for personal gain. As Patrick Henry said, “Is life so dear, or peace so sweet, as to be purchased at the price of chains and slavery?” (see also Secret Agenda: Law of The Sea Treaty)

Will patriotic Americans sit idly while our elected and appointed officials destroy our Constitution? Supreme Court Justice Antonin Scalia wrote, “Day by day, case by case, the Supreme Court is busy designing a Constitution for a country I do not recognize.” Will we allow Congress to continue to pass unconstitutional laws, such as “hate crime” laws, and revert back to the dark ages when it was a criminal offense, punishable by excommunication or death, to even utter a word that was not in conformity with the ruling political/religious hierarchy? Patrick Henry said, “I know of no way of judging the future but by the past.” (A Biography of the Signers of the Declaration of Independence, 1839, p. 308). When Nero, Marcus Aurelius, Diocletian, the Saxons, the Danes, the Normans, Kings Henry the IV, V, and VIII, and Queen (Bloody) Mary, who were among the many Roman emperors, English monarchs and others that destroyed scriptures made from the time of the apostles, the charge against Christians and their scriptures was odio humani generis, Latin for ‘hate crimes’ (lit. hatred of the human race). There is an agenda behind “hate crime” laws. Hate-crime legislation is an attempt at thought control. It is another tool in the arsenal of the ruling elite to divide and conquer the nations and peoples of the world. It is one more nail in the coffin to bury our freedoms – freedom of thought, of conscience, of religion and of speech. Thanks to unconstitutional “hate crime” laws in our once free and enlightened nation, simple civil offenses are now considered felony crimes. A time of “gross darkness” is enveloping the earth (Jer. 13:16; Joel 2:2; Zeph. 1:15). Poet George Santayana said, “Those who cannot remember the past are condemned to repeat it.” (The Life of Reason, George Santayana, 1917, p. 284).

The nineteenth century Constitutional scholar and Supreme Court Justice Joseph Story said, “This constitution of government, must perish, if there be not that vital spirit in the people which alone can nourish, sustain, and direct all its movements. It is in vain that statesmen shall form plans of government in which the beauty and harmony of a republic shall be embodied in visible order; shall be built upon solid substructions, and adorned by every useful ornament, if the inhabitants suffer the silent power of time to dilapidate its walls or crumble its massy supporters into dust, if the assaults from without are never resisted and the rottenness and mining from within are never guarded against. Who can preserve the rights and liberties of a people when they shall be abandoned by themselves? Who shall keep watch in the temple when the watchmen sleep at their post? Who shall call upon the people to redeem their possessions and revive the republic, when their own hands have deliberately and corruptly surrendered them to the oppressor and have built the prisons or dug the graves of their own friends? This dark picture, it is to be hoped, will never be applicable to the republic of America. And yet it affords a warning, which, like all the lessons of past experience, we are not permitted to disregard.” (Christian Life and Character of the Civil Institutions of the United States, 1864, p. 269)

Congregationalist minister and Harvard graduate, Jonathan Mayhew, is considered by many to be the prophet of the American Revolution. In 1750 Mayhew published a sermon entitled “A Discourse Concerning Unlimited Submission and Non-Resistance to the Higher Powers” in which he addressed the issue of obedience to a higher authority as required by Romans 13, stating, “That no civil rulers are to be obeyed when they enjoin things that are inconsistent with the commands of God.... All commands running counter to the declared will of the Supreme Legislator of heaven and earth are null and void, and therefore disobedience to them is a duty, not a crime.” Mayhew continued: “From whence it follows, that as soon as the prince sets himself up above law, he loses the king in the tyrant. He does, to all intents and purposes, unking himself by acting out of and beyond that sphere which the constitution allows him to move in; and in such cases he has no more right to be obeyed than any inferior officer who acts beyond his commission.” (A Discourse Concerning Unlimited Submission and Non-Resistance to the Higher Powers, Jonathan Mayhew, 1750, pp. 37, 38, 45)

In his famous speech at Richmond, Virginia, March 23, 1775, American patriot Patrick Henry said, “This is no time for ceremony. The question before the house is one of awful moment to this country. For my own part, I consider it as nothing less than a question of freedom or slavery; and in proportion to the magnitude of the subject ought to be the freedom of the debate. It is only in this way that we can hope to arrive at truth, and fulfil the great responsibility which we hold to God and our country. Should I keep back my opinions at such a time, through fear of giving offence, I should consider myself as guilty of treason towards my country, and of an act of disloyalty toward the Majesty of Heaven, which I revere above all earthly kings." (American Patriotism: Speeches, Letters, and Other Papers, 1880, p. 108)

In 1851 The Family Christian Almanac stated: "If truth be not diffused, error will be; if God and His Word are not known and received, the devil and his works will gain the ascendancy." (The Family Christian Almanac for the United States, 1851, p. 34). Daniel Webster stated that "If we and our posterity shall be true to the Christian religion, —if we and they shall live always in the fear of God and shall respect his commandments,... —we may have the highest hopes of the future fortunes of our country;... But if we and our posterity neglect religious instruction and authority, violate the rules of eternal justice, trifle with the injunctions of morality, and recklessly destroy the political constitution which holds us together, no man can tell how sudden a catastrophe may overwhelm us that shall bury all our glory in profound obscurity." (Christian Life and Character of the Civil Institutions of the United States, 1864, p. 270).

Historian Charles A. Goodrich said in 1830, "Thus it is evident that wickedness and infidelity are certainly, though sometimes slowly, punished by Him who is just, although merciful: and if he has hitherto graciously refrained from visiting the sins of this nation with the punishment which they deserve, let us not be vain of that exemption: let us not attribute it to any merit of our own; but rather let it afford an additional motive to our gratitude and praise; let us unfeignedly thank him for his tender mercies daily vouchsafed to us;" (Book Of Martyrs, 1830, pp.66,67). The apostle Paul said, "For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape." (1 Thess. 5:3). The apostle Peter said, "Save yourselves from this untoward generation." (Acts 2:40).

Our only hope is to uphold and defend the U. S. Constitution, "the supreme Law of the Land", and repent of our sins and return to the God of our Founding Fathers, the God of the Bible. Our U.S. house of representatives summed it up well in a resolve passed in 1854: "Whereas, The people of these United States, from their earliest history to the present time, have been led by the hand of a kind Providence, and are indebted for the countless blessings of the past and present, and dependent for continued prosperity in the future upon Almighty God; and whereas the great vital and conservative element in our system is the belief of our people in the pure doctrines and divine truths of the gospel of Jesus Christ, it eminently becomes the representatives of a people so highly favored to acknowledge in the most public manner their reverence for God:" (Christian Life and Character of The Civil Institutions of The United States, Benjamin F. Morris, 1864, pp. 327, 328). Daniel Webster said in a speech on June 3, 1834, "God grants liberty only to those who love it, and are always ready to guard and defend it." (Speeches and Forensic Arguments, Daniel Webster, Vol. II, p. 363).
